"GREEN GROCERS"
One-Reel Universal Comedy
Starring SLIM SUMMERSVILLE
with BOBBY DUNN

Slim and Bobby, employed in a corner grocery store, have difficulty in adjusting a stove pipe, but finally get it fixed, until a sleeping neighbor sees the outpouring smoke and turns a hose on the pipe, flooding the store and drenching Bobby. It takes several minutes to get the water out of Bobby's clothes, and results in the whole shop getting drenched. Slim sells a fat customer a pair of new shoes, but the customer is so stout he cannot see his purchase, and Slim saves himself the trouble of trying on the shoes, by substituting a new pair, and letting the customer look at them through a periscope.

While the store is crowded with loungers a good looking girl arrives and orders a bag of flour. She is overheard by the small town sheiks, so when Bob and Slim arrive, they find eight other men there, each with a bag of flour. Their boss is also among those present, and fires them for neglecting the shop. On the way back to town the car they're in starts to run amok and they are both blown up in an explosion.
